Canadian Artists

Post Modern Art
Canadian art in the 1970s, 80s, 90s was and is a collection of many styles. Influences include media, Surrealism, Neo-expressionism, Realism, and new art mediums. Post modernism is a phrase, which means after-modernism. It suggests a wide range of styles and a sense of change.

Claude Breeze is a professor at the York University in Toronto. He uses the media, violence, and social issues as a source of images in his work.