Modern Art (1945-1980s)
Regional styles reflect the diversity of Canada. Abstract art became the face of modern art.

Jean Paul Lemieux-The Evening Visitor, 1956.

Jean Paul Lemieux painted simplified and abstract figures. His work reflects the quiet, religious yet isolated Quebec of modern Canada.