Written Critique!

Early Christian Architecture

San Vitale in Ravenna
Italy c. AD 400.

Although the plan of many early Christian churches followed closely the established Roman basilica form there were some notable changes during the Byzantine Empire.

San Vitale in Ravenna Italy was the city’s most important Justinian church and was dedicated to St. Vitalus who was a Roman slave and Christian martyr at the end of the 4th century.

Connections:
(use e&ps & adjectives)
Clarity:
(full sentence form)

Early Bascillica floorplan